

Demand Curve Shifters

- Economists use different wordings to distinguish the mov't along the same demand curve and shift of the curve.
- Change in quantity demanded refers to mov't along the same demand curve and happens when the price of the good changes, other things constant.
- Change in demand refers to shift of the entire demand curve and happens when the other things change.